

The Criminal Justice Summit – 20 – 22 August 2018 • Te Rauparaha Arena • Porirua

27 July 2018

Public Engagement Principles: • Evidence informed • Belief that we can effect change • Every voice is heard • Transparent & Open • Accountable • Transformative

Launches the public engagement, starts to build momentum to explore possible solutions allow people to contribute to the shaping of the reform, to connect and share ideas, provide feedback to government on how the CJS could be different and to go home and take action in their communities

The Summit | The experience

MCs: ✓ Marcus Aukhata-Brown ✓ Alison Mau

Reception: Grand Hall, Parliament

Prime Minister's address:

- Set the challenge for the summit
- Articulate the vision for future CJS and how we do this work.

Minister Little:

- Launch the public conversation and articulate his commitment to the vision

Facebook live: Ministers Little, Nash, Davis, Parker & Martin (TBC)

By invite: include Advisory Group and key speakers, Ngāti Toa & Porirua City Council.

Day 2: Context

Haka Pōwhiri

Introduction and orientation

Introduction of Ministers by S9(2)(a) S9(2)(a) (TBC)

Minister Little supported by Ministers Davis and Nash outline the intent, mandate, and acknowledge current context

Individual reflection – share at table

Listening to lived realities:

Under Secretary Logie opening comments and introduce lived experience of being in/working in the system

Yesterday & today – Ministers/CVA:

Minister Davis talks about the disproportionate number of Māori in the system

- Move into three panels on:
  - victims (led by Dr Kim McGregor)
  - disproportionate number of Māori in the system (led by Minister Davis)
  - system issues for preventing crime (led by Minister Nash)

Hope:

Minister Sio introduce the session

- Judge Becroft discussing the youth justice sector and how we can learn from it • TBC speakers discussing programmes in their communities • Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern (by video)

Closing perspective on the day

Minister Little supported by Ministers Davis and Nash

Day 3: Context

Reflections from Day 2

Led by Ministers, international attendees and the Advisory Group Chair

Shift from past to future:

Led by Minister Little supported by the Advisory Group

Now and next:

- Minister Davis highlights Corrections programme of change
  - breakouts on the following focus areas:
    - tackling bias • improving waiora • supporting whānau
  - supporting people in prison and their families • more effective sentencing • keeping people safely in the community • preventing harm
    - leading change

Long term vision:

- small group sessions discussing the long term

Playback following past to future sessions

A call to action:

- Come together to unite on a personal call to action and empower participants to be advocates within their communities

Closing of Summit

Other ideas:

- Active audience participation platform
- Values eliciting
- Kōrero Pono
- Live streaming of sessions
- Suggestions wall for regional meetings and future summits

Incorporating the voice of children

- School Kit activity installation
- Vox Pop of what justice means to kids

Next steps:

- Commence development of regional criminal justice event plan
- Media plan under development

Confirmed international attendees

- Dr Elizabeth Grant – Aboriginal Environments – Australia
- Tara Boh Blair – Pretrial Services – USA
- Adam Mansky – Center for Court Innovation – USA
- Jon Gould – Justice, Law & Criminology – USA
- Alison MacPhail – Criminal Justice Reform – Canada

Countdown to the Summit

16 days

suggestions for invites to be sent to: safeandeffective@justice.govt.nz